2015 COLUMBUS BOTTLE SHOW

Sunday, February 8, 2015 from 9:00 to 2:00

Dear Bottle Collector or Dealer,

When members of the Central Ohio Bottle Club learned that the Columbus Bottle Show would be moved from the fairgrounds (actually out of Columbus), we decided something needed to be done. The Columbus show was started in 1970 by the Central Ohio Bottle Club, before being run by individuals for the past many years.

So, we have decided to host a show in Columbus this February at a great new, and very convenient, location, the Doubletree by Hilton, located at the intersection of I-270 and S. R. 23 (High Street) in the Worthington area. This location is just a couple of miles west of the intersection of I-71 N and I-270.

The Doubletree has made a block of rooms available at $99 ($109 with hot breakfast buffet for 2). In addition, there are 9 other hotels within 300 yards (a list is attached).

There is a wide variety of restaurants in the immediate area, ranging from fast food to fine dining (a partial list is also attached).

Although this is our first show in many years, we have many members who are experienced in putting on shows. Plus, we are emulating the excellent shows put on twice each year by our friends at the Ohio Bottle Club. You will note from the attached materials that we have lifted much of our format from their earlier shows and we wish to thank members of the Ohio Bottle Club for their assistance.

We are planning on a show with 50 to 75 dealers and have made arrangements with the Doubletree to accommodate a size range depending on the response we receive.

If you have been a dealer at a previous Columbus Bottle Show, or have simply attended, please make plans to attend our show, which we expect will be the first of many new, great and revitalized Shows to take place in Columbus.

Please review the attached materials and plan to be a part of our Show.

Thanks, and we hope to see you in February.
